The Incredible Shrinking PC is the latest edition of the phenomenally popular PC Review series, and it is the subject of this month's PC Perspective reviews. The guide to building a PC aimed at enthusiasts and gamers, The Incredible Shrinking PC covers everything you need to know from choosing hardware components to configuring your computer to playing your favorite games. In this special edition, we've been reviewing the latest games and software releases to see how each of them stacks up. A full overview of the titles we've played is on page 1, and our verdicts can be found on the review pages. We're kicking off the summer blockbuster season with reviews of two sequels to films that we both love: Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan (the best of the three films, by far) and Starship Troopers. The former is a darker, more adult story that only continues the adventure begun in the original film, while the latter is a more lighthearted action comedy that plays out as a sequel to the original film. Star Trek II is both an origin story of sorts, revealing the history of the original crew, as well as a bridge into the future, showing where the characters go after their adventures in the first film. As for Starship Troopers, it takes the best elements

WASHINGTON—The nation's deficit is growing again. The U.S. government is running out of money. And the economy is barely growing. The implications for the White House, the nation's top economic policy maker, are difficult to overstate. President Barack Obama's agenda for a fourth term includes a promise to tackle the persistent long-term deficits he says are holding back the economy. The country's growth prospects have also dimmed with the economy, which is slowing to a crawl after a big...More news from the world of VR Video A video from Rezzed 2017. The application is a must-have tool for extracting URLs from any type of file. With the click of a button, the program can scan a folder and display all the web page addresses that are stored inside the files. This process extracts all URLs from files, even within archive files, such as ZIP, RAR, or 7-Zip. The main window can be split into two separate panels, which makes it easy to extract URLs from a file within minutes. A simple mouse click is all that is needed to extract URLs from locally stored files in batch. Disneyland releases list of 24 new Star Wars rides Amidst the recent buzz surrounding the launch of the Disney Star Wars-themed lands at Disneyland and Disney World, fans have been eager for more information about the upcoming attractions. On Friday, the Walt Disney Company released a list of 24 new Star Wars rides which will be coming to the park beginning in 2020. What do we know? Well, the rides will be available in the Star Wars-themed lands, and will be located between the Star Tours attraction and the new Rise of the Resistance attraction. They'll open first at Disneyland and are expected to open at Disney World later this year. Ride experience information was not released, but there is a caveat to that, as Disney recently confirmed that the Star Wars attractions will take guests through "original story scenes" and "never before seen" areas. Which are the 24 new Star Wars rides? The rides are as follows (and numbered): Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #1 – Goon Squad Launch Bay Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #2 – Encounter on Takodana Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #3 – The Black Spire Outpost Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #4 – A Galactic Barbecue Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #5 – Jabba's Palace Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #6 – Millennium Falcon: Smugglers Run Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #7 – Ronto Roasters Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #8 – Gungans: Ride the Gundark Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #9 – Escape from Wat Tambor Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge #10 – Hyperspace Mountain Star Wars: Galaxy's

Singer Pink has spoken out after news broke that her dog had been shot and killed by a Los Angeles County sheriff's deputy during a standoff. Pink posted a statement on Twitter, explaining that her dog was shot dead at point-blank range during a "bizarre" situation while her security detail were out on patrol. The 45-year-old wrote: "I want to make sure to set the record straight. Our security team is armed. We are not protesters. "The moment the dog was shot the team was notified and came back inside. We are furious." "I am deeply saddened by the events. I am saddened to hear of the police dog. I will not eat my dog's kibble until this changes. I will never again allow our guards to be called police without being identified first. This is not normal." She continued: "I don'
