Candid hd amazing dolphin encounter HD 1080p If you always do the same thing, even though you have been receiving few niches of traffic daily, then you are definitely lacking to. A general guideline that should help you find the right keyword list is to analyze the 3 'Ts' of any segment of your niche: Topics, Time and Text. This is because if you just run a free keyword research tool on your niche, you're doing it wrong. You'll usually see popular keywords like "how to", "review", or "buy" 's included. These keywords are useful as long as they fall within the "Time and Text" category, because this means that someone actually searches Google for these products. A better keyword list would be to avoid popular keywords and focus on high volume search terms that are rarely searched for and offer a lot of potential traffic. An example of a High-Volume Keyword List: buy doxycycline hyclate how do i get doxycycline hyclate doxycycline hyclate user reviews doxycycline doxycycline hyclate reviews Tips When going through the 3 'Ts' of any segment of your niche, make sure that you are looking at high volume search terms only. There are literally hundreds of tools out there that can be used to analyze high volume keywords, but one of the best and simplest programs is Google Adwords Keyword Planner. If you have a large list of high volume keywords that you think might be valuable, go through the list and remove all "wimps" that only offer 1 or 2 keywords and then you are left with the meat of your keywords list that will give you the best bang for your buck. 4.4 AFFILIATE KEYWORDS Everyone can implement a solid affiliate marketing campaign, but not everyone can do so profitably. However, there is some basic information that will help you work through a successful affiliate marketing campaign. The first step is to decide on your niche. What's it about? Why should someone click through and buy your product? It's simple, but it's important. For a short description, you can use "Niche Definition to include: Ask yourself these questions about your niche: What is it about? What keywords are people searching for to find this niche? What words do people most commonly use to describe this niche
