Over the past few years, many people have been saying that Koreans like western games, and they have a strong fondness for RPGs. Despite this claim, I'm not sure there are many Korean developers who have developed their own games. I'm Rak, the creator of Greetings of Dawn (GOD). We are a self-sustaining RP game which was completely developed and is maintained by Korean developers. The future of GOD is bright as a Korean RPG development scene continues to grow. More information for the game will be posted soon. - Rak Greetings of Dawn (Korean: GOD□□ □□□□)□ □□□ □□ □□(RPG)□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□. □□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □ □□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□. □□ □□□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□ □

About:

Elden Ring

The Lands Between are a area where magic and humans coexist. Humans strive to live within the bounds of the Gods' power, but only those not branded by the Void can cross the vast world to see the mountains of heaven and the Void.

In this world, the lands beyond the mountains are known as the Lands Between. It is a realm filled with danger and excitement as powerful beings and monsters battle for survival. There, the forces of good and evil struggle for dominance, and battles rage between the two.

One of the most beautiful realms is the Lands Between, a world where magic and humans coexist. But in order to cross through the vast world, all living things must temporarily lose their humanity. Only those branded by the Void and cursed into being an Elden Lord (or "Elat") can cross into the Lands Between; and only being branded by the Void allows for complete restoration. Enslavement by the Void, called Voidness, is a state of suffering that no one wishes to be branded by.

To date, nine Elat have been born. The first to suffer the Voidness fate was the uncaring Elden Lord Crivor. The Elder Matron, Oruka, spared him as a test case for the Elden's ability to control their Voidness. She branded him, giving him mastery over his compulsion and taught him to carry out a plan.

In the years that followed, the Elden Lords waged war against each other, attempting to achieve total domination. However, the Elder Matron was able to reincarnate Crivor, who was later reborn as the painfully embittered and vengeful Elden Lord Tarnished. By capturing him, Matron Oruka affirmed the existence of the Elder Gods, the eternal foes of the Elden.

From his prison cell, Tarnished
