MEGA TNT LOAD NFS HTP FULL Crack Pc Is Here..This summer, we had the pleasure of attending Texas Christian University's first ever concert outside of spring break. Ringo Starr performed last Thursday on the main stage of the Quad. This performance marked the first in the live music series held outside of the spring break tradition, which begins the evening before the concert. The show went off without a hitch, and all nine concert goers (including myself) were incredibly excited to hear what kind of set Ringo would perform. "We're a global event," said Ringo Starr, when asked about his first ever performance outside of Spring Break tradition. Ringo has been performing all over the world for many years, and it is no surprise that he is willing to venture out to a state away from Texas. "It is good for us," said Ringo, when asked about performing at schools like TCU. "The band is very tight knit. I like the idea of coming out here and doing this. When I'm up on stage, I'm comfortable." Ringo also mentioned how flattered he is to play for TCU fans. He said it is a pleasure for him to play to a new and different crowd. "There is the atmosphere. The crowd is all different," said Ringo. "It's very refreshing." Ringo has been performing live music for over 50 years. He got his first drum set at the age of six years old, and fell in love with it. After graduating high school, he was handed a microphone and invited to join the Beatles on the Ed Sullivan Show. He followed the Beatles for his first ten years of performing, and was invited to join the studio band, as drummer, when his original group broke up in 1970. Ringo has always stuck to his roots, and never shied away from the fact that he is performing in front of a Texas crowd. He went as far as to wear his best cowboy hat on stage
