This game is originally inspired from the Super Nitro Wave Fury game. Although this is a different game, you can still play this game on your iPhone and iPod touch. This game is specifically made for the iPhone and iPod touch and is much more like a mobile game. For now the game doesn't support new ships, however, more options for new ships will be added soon. PLEASE NOTE: My goal is to release more frequent updates as the game continues to evolve. Therefore, please notify me if you encounter a bug. And if there is a feature you want to see in the game - feel free to submit an idea. I will consider your suggestion and try to implement it. Enjoy and thanks for the support! -Sam iPhone Game : Swift5 : And the library : Telegram: Reddit: `` Usage: 1. Open the app (iOS version). 2. Double tap to start the game. 3. What's new in Salt And Sails:

"The sails are set. We're off the coast of France. You didn't have to go to France, but I figured it would be fun to have an adventure at first." Samuel had had an adventure before. He remembered it. He just never thought it would come this soon. Even the thought of racing his boat to France was a new challenge for him. He had searched high and low for all the equipment he would need. Charles, always having his older brother's back, went with him to the store and helped him procure all the things he needed. They were to continue on to the marina closest to the club. The two men sat in the parking lot in the shade of the trees, deciding what they would be prepared to carry on the boat. "This could be fun, you know," Samuel said as they tossed the stuff from their car into the boat, "sleeping on the deck. Having a gentle sail along the coast." "That's true, this could be fun," Charles said. "You should come on the trip. We're headed to Italy, that's where it is." Samuel shut the trunk of the car and turned to Charles, "You don't want to come?" "Samuel... you and I have already discussed this. I can't leave my business now. It's too sensitive to take off right now." Samuel raised an eyebrow but let it drop. He knew Charles was very serious about what he did. "okay, I just wanted to know." "Yes, I'll be there in a week. As soon as I have a better handle on the case and make sure the data I'll need from Laurance is as clean as possible. I don't have the luxury of time to waste." Samuel nodded. "I'm happy for you, Charles. I know you need to take care of your business and I understand. But I hope you appreciate what we're doing, we're putting each other through hell." "Samuel, I appreciate how you've come to see this through. I thank you for it." Charles hugged Samuel, "everything will be fine." Samuel held the bag of clothes in his other hand, as he returned the embrace, "Charles, will you hold on to these for me for the next time I come to you?" "I will. You know that you can
