Those cuts, which will reportedly take effect in the 2012 budget year starting in October, won't have much of an immediate effect on most programs as Congress and the White House will have until March 4 to work out a plan to offset the loss of billions of dollars. But for Medicare and Medicaid, which are rapidly heading for insolvency if the cuts go through, there may be no easy fix. The "doc fix" provision, inserted into a short-term spending bill in early March, will affect Medicare reimbursements for doctors and hospitals, and the ability of Medicaid programs to pay for doctor and hospital services for low-income elderly, disabled and children. A hybridoma clone of mice producing monoclonal antibodies against human C1q was established. One antibody, termed anti-C1q (C1qB) was purified by gel filtration and reverse-phase chromatography. The kinetic rate of inhibition of binding of human C1q to ligands of the classical and alternative complement pathways by anti-C1q (C1qB) was studied using fluorescence immunoassays (FIA) and SPR. The inhibition of binding to C1q by anti-C1q (C1qB) was dose dependent with IC50s of 0.2 nM for the interaction with C1q and 0.8 nM for the interaction with C1s. Anti-C1q (C1qB) was able to inhibit the binding of C1q to ligands of the classical and alternative complement pathways, C1r2s2, C4BP, C4BPB, C3b, C3d, gC1qR, C2, C2a, C3, Factor H, Factor I, FHL-1 and FHL-2. The inhibitory potency of anti-C1q (C1qB) to C3b and gC1qR binding was comparable to that of C4BP.Q: Regular Expression to remove HTML I am having difficulty in writing a regex in javascript that will remove the HTML from the following string. var str = ' '; This should result in: '
